Amended and Restated Nominations and Corporate Governance Committee Charter

Purpose

The purpose of the Nominations and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) shall be as follows:

1. To select, or recommend to the Board of Directors for selection, the individuals to stand for election as directors at the annual meeting of stockholders or, if applicable, a special meeting of stockholders.
2. To oversee the selection and composition of committees of the Board of Directors and, as applicable, oversee management continuity planning processes. The Board of Directors shall determine whether the Committee shall make determinations as a committee or shall make recommendations to the Board of Directors.

Composition

The Committee shall consist of two or more members of the Board of Directors, each of whom is determined by the Board of Directors to be “independent” in accordance with the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

To the extent the Committee consists of at least three members, one director who is not independent under Nasdaq’s rules may be appointed to the Committee, subject to the following:

- the director is not a current officer or employee, or a family member of an officer or employee, of the Company;
- the Board of Directors, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that such individual’s membership on the Committee is required by the best interests of the Company and its stockholders;
- the Company discloses in the proxy statement for the next annual meeting subsequent to such determination (or in its Form 10-K if the Company does not file a proxy statement) the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination; and
- such person does not serve under this exception for more than two years.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under no circumstances shall the Committee consist of more than one non-independent director.

Appointment and Removal

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. Each member shall serve until such member’s successor is duly elected and qualified or until such member’s earlier resignation or removal. The members of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Chairman

Unless a chairman is elected by the full Board of Directors, the members of the Committee shall designate a Chairman by majority vote of the full Committee membership. No member of the Board of Directors may simultaneously serve as chairman of more than one committee; however, in the event that the resignation of a current member of the Board of Directors requires any overlap in committee chairs, the Company will disclose that fact via the Company’s website and the Committee and the Board of Directors will use its best efforts to eliminate the overlap within one hundred twenty (120) days. The Chairman will chair all regular sessions of the Committee and set the agendas for Committee meetings.

Delegation to Subcommittees

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as frequently as circumstances dictate, but shall meet not less than two (2) times per year. The Chairman of the Committee or a majority of the members of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. Any one or more of the members of the Committee may participate in a meeting of the Committee by means of conference call or similar communication device by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

All non-management directors who are not members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee, but may not vote. In addition, the Committee may invite to its meetings any director, member of management of the Company, and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate.

Charter Amendments

The Committee may review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any changes to the Board of Directors; provided, that the revisions to this Charter effected by this amendment and restatement shall remain in effect for no less than five (5) years from the date of its adoption or until a majority of the independent directors who vote to amend the Charter, whichever is sooner.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Committee shall carry out the duties and responsibilities set forth below. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may determine to carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal, or other conditions. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time related to the purposes of the Committee outlined in this Charter.

In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that the Committee deems appropriate and shall have the sole authority, without seeking Board approval, to retain outside counsel or other advisors for this purpose, including the sole authority to approve the fees payable to such counsel or advisors and any other terms of retention.

BOARD SELECTION, COMPOSITION, AND EVALUATION

The Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. Establish criteria for the selection of new directors to serve on the Board of Directors.
2. Identify individuals believed to be qualified as candidates to serve on the Board of Directors and select, or recommend that the Board of Directors select, the candidates for all directorships to be filled by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders at an annual or special meeting. In identifying candidates for membership on the Board of Directors, the Committee may take into account all factors it considers appropriate, which may include strength of character, mature judgment, career specialization, relevant technical skills, diversity, and the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board of Directors.
3. Review and make recommendations to the full Board of Directors, or determine, whether members of the Board should stand for re-election and consider matters relating to the retirement of Board members, including term limits or age caps.

4. In the case of a director nominated to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors due to an increase in the size of the Board, recommend to the Board of Directors the class of directors in which the director-nominee should serve.
5. Conduct all necessary and appropriate inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates. In that connection, the Committee shall have sole authority to retain and to terminate any search firm to be used to assist in identifying candidates to serve as directors of the Company, including sole authority to approve the fees payable to such search firm and any other terms of retention.
6. Consider questions of independence and possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board of Directors and executive officers.
7. Review and make recommendations, as the Committee deems appropriate, regarding the composition and size of the Board of Directors in order to ensure the Board has the requisite expertise and its membership consists of persons with sufficiently diverse and independent backgrounds.
8. Oversee the evaluation, at least annually, and as circumstances otherwise dictate, of the Board of Directors and management.

Board Composition and Practices

The Committee shall use, and ensure compliance with, the following guidelines when nominating members to the Board of Directors:

9. The Board of Directors may include only three (3) members who are chief executive officers at any other company.
10. The Committee and the Company shall endeavor to utilize the “Rooney Rule” for underrepresented populations when seeking candidates for nomination to the Board of Directors, provided that such underrepresented populations have applied for or expressed interest in serving on the Board of Directors.
11. Each member of the Board of Directors shall attend at least three (3) hours of online or in-person courses at a company, institution, or program that provides board member education or training services, within one (1) year of joining the Board of Directors.
12. Director Independence
 - a. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall qualify as “independent directors” under the applicable NASDAQ rules and as set forth below. If the Company fails to comply with the independence requirements set forth herein due to one or more vacancies of the Board, or if one or more directors cease to be independent due to circumstances beyond their reasonable control, the Company shall regain compliance with these requirements within ninety (90) days.
 - b. To be deemed “independent” in any calendar year, a director would have to satisfy the following qualifications in addition to meeting NASDAQ independence requirements:

 - ii. has not served in an interim capacity as an officer of the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates within the last three (3) years; and
 - iii. has not received, during the current calendar year or any of the three (3) immediately preceding calendar years, remuneration, directly or indirectly, other than de minimus remuneration, as a result of service as a board member or director, or compensation paid to an entity affiliated with the director that serves as (a) an advisor, consultant, or legal counsel to the Company or to a member of the Company's senior management; or (b) a significant customer or supplier of the Company.

- c. A director is deemed to have received remuneration (other than remuneration as a director, including remuneration provided to a non-executive chairman of the Board of Directors, or a committee chair), directly or indirectly, if remuneration, other than de minimus remuneration, was paid by the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, to any entity in which the director has a beneficial ownership interest of 5% or more, or to any entity by which the director is employed or self-employed other than as a director except for those directors that are employed or self-employed at academic institutions. Remuneration is deemed de minimus remuneration if remuneration paid to such an entity (a) did not for the calendar year exceed the lesser of $1 million, or 5% of the gross revenues of the entity and (b) did not directly result in a material increase in the compensation received by the director from that entity, or if such remuneration is $75,000 or less in any calendar year.

Committee Selection and Composition

13. Recommend members of the Board of Directors to serve on the committees of the Board, giving consideration to the criteria for service on each committee as set forth in the charter for such committee, as well as to any other factors the Committee deems relevant, and when appropriate, make recommendations regarding the removal of any member of any committee.
14. Recommend members of the Board of Directors to serve as the Chair of the committees of the Board of Directors. No member of the Board of Directors may simultaneously serve as chairman of more than one committee; however, in the event that the resignation of a current member of the Board of Directors requires any overlap in committee chairs, the Company will disclose that fact via the Company's website and the Committee and the Board of Directors will use its best efforts to eliminate the overlap within one hundred twenty (120) days.
15. Establish, monitor, and recommend the purpose, structure, and operations of the various committees of the Board of Directors, the qualifications and criteria for membership on each committee of the Board, and as circumstances dictate, make any recommendations regarding periodic rotation of directors among the committees and impose any term limitations of service on any Board committee.
16. Periodically review the charter and composition of each committee of the Board of Directors and make recommendations to the Board for the creation of additional committees or the elimination of Board committees.

Report regularly to the Board of Directors following meetings of the Committee, (a) with respect to such matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities, and (b) with respect to such recommendations as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board of Directors may take the form of an oral report by the Chairman or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make such report.
19. Maintain minutes or other records of meetings and activities of the Committee.
